

Exploring the International

Space Station Library

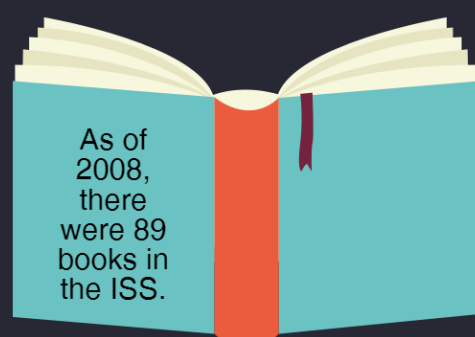

From movies to television shows to books and music, you will find a vast selection of media aboard the International Space Station.

Created by Jaclyn Rosansky, Senior Content Editor, ProQuest
 Infographic originally appeared on the ProQuest Share This blog

Books

From Jules Verne's "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea" to Dan Brown's "Angels and Demons," there are plenty of books you can read and enjoy.

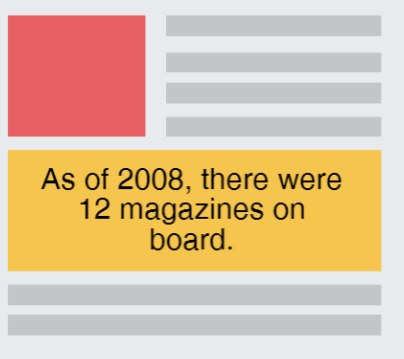

1

2

Magazines

"Asimov's Science Fiction Magazine" and "Analog Science Fiction and Fact Magazine" can be found in the ISS Library to keep you entertained!

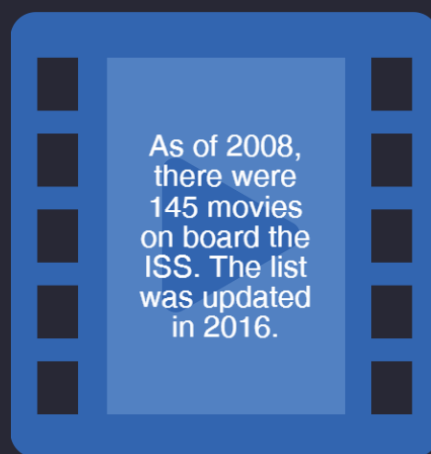

3

Movies

You can watch "Armageddon," "Apollo 13" or "Star Wars" films on the ISS, but if that's too close to home, you can also watch "The Matrix," "Harry Potter" films from the series, "Gone with the Wind" and "Forrest Gump." There are plenty of films to choose from.

As of 2008, there were 145 movies on board the ISS. The list was updated in 2016.

4

TV Shows

"Seinfeld," "Scrubs," "Saturday Night Live" and "The Daily Show" will all satisfy your comedic needs, but news programs like "60 Minutes" and shows like "CSI: NY" are available too in the ISS.

As of 2008, there were 39 different television shows on board the ISS. The list was updated in 2016.

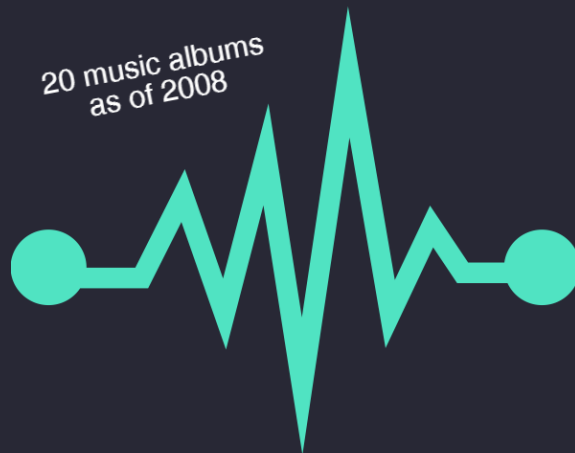

5

Music Albums

"Beethoven's Symphony No. 9," "Opera Chillout Vol. 3" and "Elephunk" are just some of the music albums aboard the ISS. While the list isn't extensive, it's definitely varied.

20 music albums as of 2008

6

Song Titles

"Love Me Tender" by Elvis Presley, "Walking to the Moon" by The Police and "Fly Me to the Moon" by Frank Sinatra will all serenade you in the stars along with a number of other tunes.

20 songs as of 2008

SOURCES

NASA List of books, movies, television shows, and music maintained on the International Space Station (ISS) for recreational/off-duty consumption via governmentattic.org FOIA request.
http://www.governmentattic.org/docs/ISS_Media_2008.pdf

Updated 2016 list on Paleofuture blog via FOIA request: <http://paleofuture.gizmodo.com/the-complete-list-of-movies-and-tv-shows-on-the-interna-1782918945>